At its meeting held June 1, 2004, the Board took the following action:

Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

"The Saint Malachy Catholic Church will be holding its annual festival June 10 through 13, 2004. The church is a nonprofit organization and will be having the festival as a fundraiser to aid in the construction of a new kindergarten and additional classrooms for their school.

"This event is required to obtain a temporary use permit from the Department of Regional Planning. In previous years, the Board of Supervisors has approved waivers of the Temporary Use Permit fees to show support for events beneficial to the community. The current fee for a Temporary Use Permit is $770.00.

"This event is important for the community of Florence/Firestone and deserves the full support of the County. I feel that we should provide support for this event by waiving the permit fee."

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisors Molina and Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board waived the Department of Regional Planning's filing fee of $770.00 for a Temporary Use Permit, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for the Saint Malachy Catholic Church's annual festival, to be held June 10 through 13, 2004.
